IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of our dear Father and Daddy, John T. Goin, who pased away one year ago today, July 23, 1955.

We do not need a special day,
To bring you to our minds;
The days we do not think of you
Are very hard to find.
The happy hours we once enjoyed,
When we were all together;
But, oh, how it has changed.
It all is now gone forever.
Please keep him, dear Jesus,
In thy keeping,
Until we all reach that shining shore,
Then, dear God, bring us all together.
As we always were before.

—Sadly missed by
Joyce Ann and John T. Goin Jr.

CARD OF APPRECIATION

I wish to thank and express my appreciation to my friends for their kindness during the seven months I have cared for my grandfather in my home.

This would not be complete without a word of gratitude to my wife, Gloria. Her unselfish devotion and care for Granddaddy made it possible for me to visit my father during his illness.

Dr. W. L. Ould is now at St. Johns Nursing Home in Lynchburg. I know everyone wishes him a speedy recovery.

Billy Ould.

TO OUR FRIENDS:

Out of the fullness of your hearts you have given us your sympathy in our sorrow and we are humbled and grateful. Especially are we comforted by the love and esteem for "Bessie V." which you so generously evidenced in such countless ways all during her illness. Every expression of compassion for her family is deeply and lastingly appreciated.

—John, Jack & Bill Caldwell
& the Harwoods.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express to the people of Appomattox County our sincere appreciation of their many acts of kindness extended us during Mr. McInturff's illness. We have now returned to our old home in Tennessee and welcome any of our friends to visit us.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. Enos McInturff

Oakville 4-H Demonstation

Three 4-H members of Oakville school give demonstrations in electrical projects. From left to right: Ann Moore gave a demonstration on how to clean and care for an iron. Phyllis Woody explains that vacuum cleaners give best results when properly cared for— follow directions which accompany the appliance. And "Learing to repair cords and plugs are simple after completing the 4-H electric project," explains Tommy Drinkard.

In FASHION now

The fashion industry has a very interesting and colorful language of its own. This particular jargon is used to describe shoes, dresses, fur, jewelry, hair, makeup or perfume.

If you hear a designer say that he is going to "knock off a Trigere," he means he is going to copy a high-priced, high-style Pauline Trigere dres into one in a much lower price range.

A "Ford" is a dress that is produced in mass quantity and sold from coast to coast in various ranges. It is usually one of the popular cuts, becoming to all figure types. It is made up in all fabrics, for all seasons of the year.

In the fashion industry there is a fifth season—summer, winter, fall, spring and "slack."

Shoe manufacturers refer to A, B, C shoe widths as: Annie or Albert for A, Bennie for B, and Charlie for C.

When hairdressers refer to a "Plaid Job" they mean a woman whose hair has been dyed many different colors and shows it.

In the perfume business, a "nose" is a person who has a knowledge of the many aromatic substances available in the complex method of making perfume. Salesgirls selling perfume refer to women just browsing around as "lookers" who just want to be "sprayed."

In the fur industry a cutter of mink skins who works fast is called a "slicer." The cutter who does a sloppy job is called a "butcher."
